

THE WORLD IS CALLING

And Regent Seven Seas Cruises Will Help You Answer

BY MICHAEL DOWLING

*“Far away places, with strange sounding names, Far away over the sea...
Far away places, with their strange sounding names, Calling, calling, me...”*

Do the words of that popular 1948 song stir your sense of adventure? Are far away places calling you? Places like South America, the South Pacific, and the Far East?

Let Regent Seven Seas Cruises help you answer the call. Take 8 pleasure-filled, adventuresome, educational, 7- to 24-night Ring of Fire voyages to “those far away places.”

One of your first ports of call will be Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, where you can take a cable car to the 1,300-foot summit of Sugar Loaf Mountain for a magnificent, panoramic view of this gleaming city nestled against the sea. Then board the cog railway for a 30-minute climb up Hunchback Mountain to the base of the world-famous, 120-foot Christ the Redeemer statue, recently named one of the New Seven Wonders of the World. Sign up for a two-night excursion to spectacular Iguazu Falls, composed of 275 separate falls spread over a 1.5-mile rim. Stand almost encircled by thundering water as it crashes 250 feet to the canyon below.

Sydney, Australia, one of the world’s most cosmopolitan cities and home of the 2000 Summer Olympics, is calling you to view its magnificent skyline from the world’s largest natural harbor. Enjoy a performance in the world-famous Sydney Opera House, an acclaimed example of modern expressionist architecture, built on 588 concrete piers sunk up to 80 feet below sea level. Visit the dramatic Blue Mountains, where eroded gorges up to 2,500 feet deep create a natural wonder not unlike Arizona’s Grand Canyon. The world’s steepest perpendicular railway will plunge you 700 feet into these amazing rock formations, where you can explore them on foot or by off-road vehicle.

*Are far away places tugging at your heart?
Fulfill your dreams, enhance your education, experience the adventure of a lifetime.*

Bangkok, Thailand, the “Venice of the East,” is so different from Rio and Sydney, and that’s what makes this voyage so interesting. As you glide in a traditional long-tail boat past floating markets, stilt houses, and canoes laden with colorful fruit, you’ll truly know you’re in a “far away place.” Visit Wat Phra Kaew, Thailand’s most important Buddhist temple, to admire the Emerald Buddha, made of translucent green jasper adorned with garments of gold. Sign up for a two-night excursion to Angkor Wat, the magnificent temple that has become neighboring Cambodia’s national symbol and most popular tourist attraction.

In Hong Kong, Western culture coexists seamlessly with Chinese traditions and practices. Once a Crown colony of the United Kingdom and now part of the People’s Republic of China, it is a bustling international center of commerce. Its skyline, composed of more than 7500 skyscrapers (2000 more than New York City), is ranked the world’s best. View it as you cross Victoria Harbor on the Star Ferry. After 120 years, it’s still considered the most picturesque ferry ride in the world.

Are far away places tugging at your heart? Fulfill your dreams, enhance your education, experience the adventure of a lifetime. Let Regent Seven Seas Cruises help you answer the call.
